DOSAV GETS NEW EMBLEM, FLAG -- Patriot Rodiny, No 61, 31 Jul 49

A meeting of the All-Union Council of DOSAV has adopted a new emblem and flag for the society. The emblem consists of a blue shield on which the figure of a flying airplane, a descending parachute, a five-sided star with hammer and sickle, a gear wheel, and grain spikes are mounted. The flag is a red rectangle on which is mounted the sport aviation banner. The emblem of the society is placed in the center of the banner.

The emblem will be used by the press of all organizations of the society, as a badge for members of the society, on flags and banners, as a marking for all aircraft of the society, and on signs at the entrances to establishments of the society. [See CIA Photo Accession No 4321.]
